Dear Parent

May 1st, 2025

The month of April went by, where each day in the Pre-Primary Wing was thoughtfully planned to make the children feel at ease, build connections with their peers, and help them bond with their teachers. The environment was filled with fun and laughter, turning school into a place where learning happened naturally through play and joyful experiences.

We're all set for a joyful summer break filled with sunshine, smiles, and endless adventures! The teachers have cooked up a delightful mix of fun and learning to keep your child's holiday exciting and meaningful. From creative crafts and cool experiments to stories, games, and surprises—there's something awesome waiting every day!
