

Dear Parent

November 1, 2025

The month of November highlights the celebration of Gurpurab and Children’s Day through a series of thoughtfully curated activities that emphasize the values of community, generosity, and compassion. These celebrations are seamlessly integrated into the academic curriculum, serving to enrich classroom instruction while fostering the development of students into empathetic and responsible individuals.

ACTIVITIES FOR THE MONTH

Date/Day	Activity	Activity description	Material required	Learning outcome
November 3, 2025 (Monday) 	Gurpurab Celebration	Pre- Primary Children will dress in traditional attire, carry relevant props, and speak about the teachings and significance of Guru Nanak Dev Ji.	Pre-Primary <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Props/ flashcards</li> <li>• Kadha Prasad(halwa) in the tiffin</li> </ul> 	Children will learn the values of selfless service, humility, and community through the teachings of Guru Nanak Dev Ji.
November 4, 2025 (Tuesday) 	Gurpurab Celebration	Pre-School Teachers will explain the significance of Gurpurab. Children will wear traditional attire or dress as little ‘sardars’ and ‘sardarnis’.	Pre-School Kadha Prasad(halwa) in the tiffin	Children will develop an appreciation for the life and foundational teachings of Guru Nanak Dev Ji, with particular emphasis on values such as equality and compassion.
November 14 , 2025 (Friday)	Children’s Day celebration	Pre- School &amp; Pre-Primary Children will come dressed in party clothes, carry party food, and enjoy fun-filled activities to celebrate their special day.		Children will explore the legacy of Jawaharlal Nehru and understand the significance of Children’s Day in promoting love, education and the well- being of children.

ASSEMBLIES FOR THE MONTH

Date/Day	Class/Section	Theme
November 13 , 2025 (Thursday)	Pre-School B	Celebrating Childhood: A Day of Joy , Creativity and Togetherness.

