3rd December, 2018

Dear parent,

The chill of the December air makes our tiny tots bundle up in woolen jackets and sweaters to keep snug and warm. It also brings in a spurt of recharged energy and the children love being outdoors in the warmth of the sun, amidst bright fresh flowers. Outdoor activities, fun and games peak in this cold month along with an anticipation of merry making and jublations which mark the celebrations to come.

The vigor, excitement and energy of the month gone by left an everlasting impression on the little ones. Children's Day was celebrated with a kaleidoscope of activities. The excitement of the day never seemed to end as the children began the day by creating and expressing themselves through the medium of art. The highlight of the day was a magic show where each child was enthralled by the magician's antics. The day ended on a happy note with a chocolate being distributed to each child. Guru Nanakji's birthday was also commemorated with a special assembly conducted by the children of Pre- Primary D.

The month brings in gaiety and festivity with an eager anticipation of Christmas harboring the spirit of caring and sharing. Our little hands would be busy making Christmas decorations and knick knacks. Their eagerness to meet Santa Claus and receive a gift from him brings cheer and warmth to our hearts.

The year will be ending on a busy note as it began, each day bringing with it new experiences and pleasures. In anticipation of the new year the children should start thinking of their new year resolutions and as parents it would be nice if you could steer their young minds towards positive and realistic promises.
